

Submission of Academic Documents

Regardless of whether you are holding a conditional or firm offer, you are required to present the original of all your academic qualifications to the Undergraduate Recruitment and Admissions Office on document verification day. These includes:

- 1) Documents on Qualification for meeting the General Admissions Requirement (see Appendix I)
- 2) Proof of meeting the English Language Admissions Requirement (see Appendix II).

If your official documents are not written in English or Chinese, you must also provide a full English translation prepared either by your high school or by an approved translation service provider.

Important Notes:

- Only original copies of your qualifications will be used for verification purposes. Photocopies or electronic documents submitted online would NOT be considered.
- The academic documents submitted for visa application CANNOT be used for verification.
- If you have taken IB / SAT / AP / ACT / TOEFL, please request the following examination bodies to send your official score reports to us. We will then verify your results on the Exam Results section on your online application. HKUST's institution codes are as follows:

IB Diploma	00252
College Board (SAT, AP)	2787
ACT	6986
ETS (TOEFL)	0170

- We also accept official transcripts and graduation documents sent directly by your high school/ university registry. Documents can be sent either by school email (to ugadmit@ust.hk) or by post to the following mailing address:

Undergraduate Recruitment and Admissions Office
Rm 4006, Academic Building
The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology
